

RESPOND!

Sustainable Art Awards

The Respond! Sustainable Art Awards is now open!

Do you have artwork that responds to the themes of sustainability, environmental issues, climate change or ecology?

If so, submit your work and you could be chosen by a panel of famous artists industry experts to be showcased during Respond! 2009 as one of the leading sustainable artists in the UK.

Selected winners will see their work exhibited in a central London gallery and invited to the opening night in June. The entire exhibition will be covered by the national press and media.

To register, please email: respond@bashcreations.com

What is Respond!?

Throughout June 2009, the RSA Arts & Ecology Centre in association with BASH Creations will celebrate and showcase the achievements and commitment of the arts in addressing environmental issues. The aim of Respond! is to engage and inspire arts audiences through events, exhibitions, talks, projects and activities happening throughout June.

Deadline for submission is May 20th 2009
